“ My lovely and sweet Liz,

In such a short time we became good friends and I looked forward to my day at work knowing I had my dear Liz to help me when I needed. You moved around like you were in your twenties and never said no regardless of the task at hand or the intense pressure that came with the request. I wish I had picked up the phone and heard your voice. So much of you remains a mystery. I wish I had more time to get to know you. I will always remember for your strength, kindness, humor and compassion.

Love you and may God bless your soul! May God give your family strength to move forward in a healthy and loving manner.

Your friend and colleague,
Ghezal
