“ So sorry to learn of Gail's death. We remember when our sons mowed yards in the neighborhood on Moore Ave. And how we always gave beef tongue to Gail to cook. We now live at the Chateau in Cape. Sending sincere sympathy to you, Dick, and your family.

“ Dick and Family,
Please know that we share in your sorrow at the passing of your precious Gail. Bob and I last saw Gail at our CHS 50th reunion and remember the good times we had with you and Gail.
I remember that Gail trusted me enough to sew one of her bridesmaid's dresses for your wedding. She also sent us a gift when our son, Mark was born in 1963. We still have the silver dollar!
We pray that you and your children are comforted by the Holy Spirit and your faith, and assurance that Gail is with her Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Our God is faithful to us in His promises and continues in His love for you all.
Keep your warm memories of Gail close to your hearts and let those memories keep her close to you.
Blessings, deepest sympathy, and peace from one of your oldest friends.

“ Condolences to you and your family, Dick, on the passing of Gail. The shortest verse in the Bible is "Jesus wept." This is in the context of him sharing the grief of Mary concerning the passage of her brother, Lazarus. And yet, he knew that very soon Lazarus would come forth from the grave. May you be comforted in your grief and look forward to her resurrection. The Holy Spirit is our comforter. Blessings.

“ Growing up next door to Mr. and Mr. Giles was a pleasure. I have so many great memories of the love and kindness they shared with our family. Mrs. Giles was the sweetest person I think I have ever met. She always had a bright smile on her face, and such a contagious laugh. We used to call them our third set of grandparents. What a great family! Sending prayers for you Mr. Giles, and for your family during this time. She will be missed here, but i know that Heaven just gained an angel! God Bless. -Katie (Fowler) Immer

“ As I sit here, just learning of Gail's passing, I am stunned. What a beautiful soul! This world just got a little dimmer. There are so many stories and wonderful memories streaking through my mind as tears of sorrow drop. From the first time I met her to the last time I saw her, she left such a positive indelible mark on my heart and life. She was the next door "grandmother" to our children and they would not be who they are today had it not been for her kind loving guidance--for me and them. To Dick and her children: Take heart in the knowledge that she is with the Lord, and she will be missed by so many, but especially the Fowler family. Love and Prayers to all...Ann and Mark Fowler (Katie, Casey and Ben)
