“ My thoughts and prayers are with you in this very difficult and sad time. I understand what you are going through as I too lost my son, just two years ago, at age 24 to Ewings Sarcoma. Please know that I am sending you prayers and strength each day. Debbie Hosselkus

“ Dear Mr. & Mrs. Sadler and family, I am so sorry for the loss of your wonderful son. I did not know Aaron well, but as I was often at Walmart, I often saw and spoke with him. He was a amazing young man who always had a smile for everyone; he made this world a much better place. I was so saddened to hear of his passing as I entered the store; he was on my mind throughout my shopping and I have continued to think of him every day since. Aaron will be missed by everyone who knew him and also by those who were casual acquaintances. He was so enthusiastic about teaching history!!! I, myself, am a former teacher/counselor and I find that truly heartwarming that he had such a strong desire for teaching; I imagine others that follow him in the teaching profession and who knew of his love of students and their acquisition of knowledge have been encouraged by him and in them, Aaron will live on. I will never forget Aaron and his engaging smile. With my deepest sympathy, Lynne Loveless

“ Aaron- To me, you were known as Mr. Sadler back when you were a student teacher teaching at Chaffee Jr/Sr High School.:) History class was not my favorite class, but after the class was used to having you and the activities became interesting, it got way better!!:P You were truly a nice guy all around... The world got smaller when my aunt and you worked at Wal-mart together.. Haha that is when the funny conversations got started:) So glad to have had you as a teacher and as a friend. Rest in Peace God's Angel!
Love, Kate

“ I had the privilege of becoming friends with Aaron while we were both pursuing degrees at SEMO. Walking into the history department and seeing Aaron smiling or laughing about something, or engaged in an interesting conversation with a group of professors or students was a familiar sight. Even after he graduated Aaron would stop by to visit or sit in on a class discussion and everyone was always so glad to have him around again. Aaron was witty, funny, and smart; he was also genuinely kind, friendly and encouraging. He was a joy to be around and will be dearly missed and remembered. My sincerest condolences to his family.

“ I had a graduate level history class with Aaron at Southeast. The class was small, probably eight people. We would all meet and sit around a small, oval conference table and discuss the assigned history readings. He was smart, funny and always had a positive attitude. When I would see him at Walmart, he would always smile and say hi. I am so sorry for your loss of Aaron.

“ I believe it was 2009 sometime in the summer. Youth Camp..oh my..Bro Aaron couldnt have done a better job putting it together. We had so much fun with all the water guns and ketchup and everything he planned. When we get to heaven I figure he will be standing behind the pearly gate waiting with his water gun to catch us off guard. Bro. Aaron we love you and your family so much. You will never be forgotten and will be missed dearly. We are praying constantly for the family and church family. We love you all. Kelly, Tabatha, Jordan and Jeffrey Welch

“ Cindy and Albert, We extend to you our heartfelt comfort. What comfort it is to know that our Lord Jesus is the Resurrection and the Life and that Aaron knew this and trusted in Him! We have a couple of family activities this weekend so we will not be able to attend the visitation or service. Janice and your Mom showed me the special picture they had of one of his last visits in St. Louis.

“ I just heard about Aaron a few hours ago, and wanted to offer my condolences to his family and friends. I didn't know Aaron well, but I would have liked to. I spoke to him in class and he was always very friendly, and one thing that always struck me was that he smiled a LOT. I never saw him when he didn't have a smile on his face. I regret that I cannot attend the visitation and/or funeral in the company of many of my own friends and classmates who will be in attendance, but my thoughts are with you all in this difficult time.

“ My prayers and thoughts go out to the Sadler family. I worked with Aaron at Walmart for many years. He was always smiling and a great friend and co-worker. He will be deeply missed by all that had the priviledge of knowing him. Although we may not understand it, God needed a special angel and knew that Aaron fit that description perfectly. He's in a better place and I am sure that he is smiling down on all of us right now.

“ Wal-Mart just won't be the same without you there. You were always so gracious and encouraging. When I had biopsies done in November and again last month, you were concerned about me even when you were going through so much more yourself. So sorry that you had to suffer as the end came near. But your suffering has ended now, no more pain. I have a picture of you and I taken at the bowling alley a few years ago. I will cherish it always. Love, Lisa.

He was always laughing and cutting up with everyone. Never seemed to be burdened down. He has now reached the place where we are all striving for. No more pain or tears for him. God will give you strenght. No words can take the sorrow away but just hold on to the lord, and someday you will see him again.
