“ Mrs. Penrose use to wait for her ride in the front lobby of the hospital when she got off from work the same time I did, she was always friendly and I looked forward to seeing her and chatting with her. Her family are in my thoughts and prayers at this difficult time.

“ Mrs. Penrose was the evening housekeeper in surgery at St. Francis Hospital. She loved her Cardinals, especially Andy Van Slyke. She listened to the games on her transistor radio as she cleaned. We in surgery have good memories of Mrs. Penrose, it was a blessing to have known her. With Sympathy, Janis Rebert
