“ I want you to know that our family loves you all and are praying for you. Sis. Randol will be truly missed. I so enjoyed working with her on the ladies committee for many years and for the times we preached for you all in the Cape. I will always forever be grateful for her kindness and friendship to me. Heaven is rejoicing because such a great and lovely lady has come home. She will be missed by all who are left behind, but I can see the Angels welcoming her when she stepped on those shores. When we all get to Heaven what a day of rejoicing that will be.

“ To a dear, dear family I have known MOST of my life. I'm SO glad I took Mom to visit with Bro. & Sis. Randol last year. They had just returned from GC in TX I believe. We had such a great visit. Their home is one where you felt comfortable and loved, no matter how long it had been since you saw them, or were at their home. I spent so much time there, as did her "other flock", she was always like a 2nd mother to me. She will be missed. I pray that God will give all of you strength, comfort and peace during this bitter-sweet time, knowing she no longer suffers, but singing with the angels. But I also know the grief and the ache in your hearts. I'm thankful to have been a part of your lives! So MANY wonderful memories!! My health will not allow me to be there with you for her Home-going celebration. But I will be there in spirit. Much love and prayer for each of you. Terrie

“ The pain of losing someone you love can be quite overwhelming; I too know that pain. May your family find comfort as I have in knowing that our loving heavenly Father promises us that very soon, he will 'swallow up death forever, and wipe the tears from all faces' by means of his only-begotten son Jesus. (Isaiah 25:8) What a wonderful day that will be!
