“ I know that you are suffering now, but Uncle Almos isn't anymore. I know that what you wished for him. It's always hard to let a parent go. I was so glad to see him when Bob, Margaret and I were there last year. We had a really nice visit, first one in years for me. He always made everyone laugh. As Mary Ann said, Heaven is a better place now that he is there. Love to everyone. Cyd

“ I don't know what to say except that I feel such a sense of loss. I can only imagine how it is multiplied for the kids, grandkids, and Aunt Clara. But I have seen his suffering in the recent years especially, and most of all in past months. his suffering is over now. For this I am grateful. The world is a better place because he was in it. It is emptier now though, but Heaven just got that much sweeter. Aunt Clara, you were his rock. I know what true love is by the example set by the two of you. I am proud that he was my uncle and that you are my aunt. We love you all. We will miss him. Love Maryann

“ Please accept my sympathy on your great loss. Almos and Clara both had a positive influence on me when I was a growing young ruffian in McClure and I always had much respect for him.
