

Alonzo Leon Rhodes

August 23, 1998 - July 1, 2022

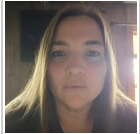

No obituary found for this tribute.

Tribute Wall

DA

“ Our thoughts and prayers are with Chris, Shelley, and the kids during this most difficult time. Dave Aitken and Family

Dave Aitken - July 13, 2022 at 11:25 AM

“ Lonnie had the cutest smirk when he was being sarcastic. Although he had traits of his dad, he was his mom's first little 'mini me' The day he was born, I remember waiting anxiously to hold my new, tiny nephew. He didn't stay tiny for long and soon acquired the nickname Little Buddha. I loved babysitting him and finding different ways to hear his sweet little laugh. He spent so much time with my boys when they were little, talking about superheroes and video games.

There will never be adequate words to describe the loss we all feel and my heart aches, especially for his mom, dad, sisters and brother. Lonnie, is forever loved and forever missed. 💔

Love Aunt Charlie

Charlie Berge - July 09, 2022 at 12:42 AM

LN

“ Lonnie was always his own person. I regret to say I didn't get to see him for this last year. I wish I had been able to get to know the man that he was becoming. When I think of Lonnie I will always remember the little boy that was at my house every day. Always playing games with his cousins. Jesus tells the story when Lonnie wanted to ride the lawnmower with him. He sat on Jesus's lap and thought it was the greatest thing. He was so excited he slept the whole time Jesus was cutting the grass. Lonnie was loved by all his family and will be greatly missed.

Lorinda Najera - July 08, 2022 at 07:59 PM

LU

“ Not so much a memory but rather a thought.

Lonnie was a special kind of person. He is gone way too soon. He will be missed by his family. He leaves behind a mother and father who struggle to deal with the loss of Lonnie. He also leaves behind two sisters and a brother who will wish they could tell Lonnie about things happening in their lives but can't. Rest easy Lonnie and may your mind be at peace.

Love you

Aunt Lula

Lula - July 07, 2022 at 11:34 AM

LN

Some of our best or funniest memories are from when I was babysitting everyone. Lonnie always loved dressing up in his super hero costumes. He had a favorite cape that he like to wear every single day!! He would stand on the couch and jump off hollering "IM STUPPER MAN"!! Forever loved and and forever missed.

Lorinda Najera - July 08, 2022 at 07:25 PM