“ Margaret and Terry,

I can't find the words to express how devastated I am to hear that Amy has passed. There isn't a moment of my junior high/high school years that don't include wonderful memories of Amy (Aim). She was beautiful, smart and funny - we just clicked from the first day we met. I have thought about her often over the years and always had so much regret that we lost touch. Much love to you both. Many thoughts and prayers for you and your family.

TH

Marg, Terry k Abby, Our heart aches for all of you and your family! We looked on Cape obituaries today and Tom read it to me! It made us both so sad! I keep thinking back to summer in 1977 when we moved in on Sherwood and all the times that Gina & Amy played at each other's houses! They were both cute as could be and full of fun! Life is so hard to deal with at times! Please tell Abby that we are so sorry for her! I don't know Isabella but give them both a hug from us! So glad I got to see you and Abby in Jackson earlier this summer! Tell Abby that we are so proud of her! Love you all and wish we could hug you!
Love, Tom, Nancy, & Gina
