“ Andy and where childhood best friend down in Sikeston. We played guitar together many boring days in that town and had so many adventures. I just found out about his passing...I grieve his passing and pray God's hand is touching him now.

“ I went to college with Andy and was introduced to him thru Mark Trickey and Jofn Penn. I liked Andy alot and considered him one of my best friends. I am sorry that I did not stay in touch all these years. I want to say to his wife Andy was a fine person and I had the greatest priviledge of knowing him. He is now in a placewhere he will not suffer. To his wife and family I send my warmest condolences. Robert Fann

“ I am sorry to hear of andy's passing and my condolences to his family. Andy was one of my roommate's while attending college at SEMO. My major in college was criminal justice and andy was a great help in my studies. His knowledge of firearms and ballistics was incredible.I know andy fueled my passion to become a police officer which I have been one for 23 years. God Bless.

“ I had the pleasure of meeting Andy toward the end of my college days at SEMO in late 1983 if memory serves me correctly. It was also quite an education being around him. Along with mutual friends in the evenings he educated me about firearms and the work he would be going into. He had a passion for what he did. He is without a doubt the most knowledgeable person I've ever met when it came to ballistics. He also had a wry sense of humor which I keenly remember and a memory for detail. I learned a lot from him, and I was surprised to learn of his passing. We lost contact after I moved away from Cape, but I knew he would do well in his chosen field. I'm sure he will be missed by many. In closing, I send a prayer to our Lord Jesus Christ that he may keep him in his eternal kingdom.

“ Andy was one of my best friends in college; I still smile when I think back to those days, which is quite often. I didn't get to see him in recent years, but thought of him frequently. My condolences to the Wagoner family; Andy will be greatly missed.

“ The pain of losing someone you love is something that we will never get use to because God's Word refers to death as 'the last enemy.' May your family find comfort as I have in knowing that our loving heavenly Father promises us that very soon he will have our enemy 'brought to nothing.' (1Corinthians 15:26) What a wonderful day that will be!

“ First of all my thoughts and prayers go out to the family of Andy. I knew Andy from my law enforcement career I took many cases to Dr Briner and Andy at the SEMO Crime Lab. Andy was a great guy and an excellent Lab Tech he knew what he was doing. He will be sadly missed by all of us that knew him. God Bless you Andy and may you rest in peace brother.
