“ Angie was a person that always consider others. She would listen to our problems regardless of. How she was doing. She was always a breath of life . She would help any. She could She had faith in god that he would show us the light. She cared so much about her family (the family never knew how much).

We will miss her more than anyone knows Nnshe will be in heaven watching over all of us

From a person who will miss her more than life itself

“ Words can never express how much I am going to miss you, Angie. You were such a dear friend to me for 40 years, and I will always cherish the memory of our friendship. I pray to God for strength and comfort for all of your family during this deeply sorrowful time. You were loved so much by so many, and the pain of your absence is going to remain for such a long time. Rest In Peace.

“ I will always remember Angie from Van-Far. Although Angie was a couple of years older than me we would always see each other in science club. She would always have a smile on her face and would stop to say hello whenever we saw each other. She will be sadly missed. Sending prayers to her entire family that God may help them through this sorrowful time.
