

Anistyn Babcock-Sweeney

November 19, 2010

On Nov. 19, 2010, our precious angel, Anistyn Riylee Babcock-Sweeney, left to be with our Lord in heaven. At the gates she was met by her great-grandpa Babcock and her loving uncles Barry and Ray Ashby. They are now caring for her, smiling with her, and they are all watching over Vanessa and her family. Anistyn was born to Vanessa Babcock and David Sweeney on Nov. 3, 2010. Her family celebrated her arrival on that day. In her short life, she brought so much joy to everyone who came in her presence. Those that didn't get to meet her could see the sparkle in her eyes through pictures and could feel how special she was through the voices of those who knew her. She couldn't talk, but with her eyes she said it all. During her short time with us, and in her passing, she taught us the true meaning of life and reminded us all what is important. She is survived by her sister Hayden Sweeney of Cape Girardeau; her maternal grandmother and grandfather, Don and Sherry Babcock of Cape Girardeau; paternal grandparents Edonna and Marcus Sides of Fruitland; maternal great-grandparents Buck and Ginny Ashby of North Carolina, maternal great-grandmother Elsie Babcock of Flower Mound, Texas; Aunt Lora and Uncle Travis Stalford of Coffeetown, Kan., Aunt Jessica Babcock of Fleming, Colo.; Uncle Wes of North Platte, Neb.; and Aunt Jocelyn Babcock of Merriam, Kan. Memorials in Anistyn's name can be made to the Commemorative Tree Program of Cape Girardeau Parks Development Foundation at 410 Kiwanis Drive, Cape Girardeau, MO 63701. Alternatively, memorials in Anistyn's name can be made to SIDS Resources Inc. by phone at 800-421-3511. Visitation will be from noon to 1 p.m. Monday, November 22, 2010 at Ford & Sons Mt. Auburn Chapel. Funeral will be at 1 p.m. Monday, November 22, 2010 at the funeral home with the Rev. Richard VanWinkle officiating. Burial will follow at Apple Creek Cemetery in Pocahontas.

“ I have never met you but I too have lost an infant shortly after birth so I have experienced the pain you are feeling right now firsthand. Just want you to know you are not alone and that there are lots of mommys out there who have been where you are now and are praying for peace and comfort for you right now.

“ Anistyn, You were such a beautiful sweet and loving gift that god blessed your mommy with. Everyone who knew you whether they have met your or just heard about you from your mommy, had so much love for you and even though you are no longer with us the memory of you will remain close in our hearts. Please watch over your mommy and help her get through this hard time without you. Babygirl you were truly a blessing and it breaks my heart that I never had the pleasure of meeting precious little girl. Just remember I love you and will always remember you and the huge impact you’ve made on all of our lives. I love you Vanessa and I’m sorry I couldn’t attend today but if I could have been there I would have. Love August
