“ I thought of Anna Mae as a second mother and friend. We got to know each other at work and remained great friends through the years. I should have called her sooner this last time. I never knew anyone like her and God I will miss her. RIP my dear friend. You live on in my heart and memories.

“ Anna Mae was one of a kind. She always remembered my name, had a story to share, loved her job with VIP and talked kindly about Kevin taking her fishing! Her children and their spouses were especially good to their mom. She was a touch opinionated (a lot like my mom) and her/our families are stronger and closer thanks to good women like Anna Mae. It was a gift to know her. She leaves a great legacy. Heaven has gotten another good one. Loved her,
