

Annette Gail Farrar

August 6, 2014

Annette Gail Farrar, beloved wife, mother, daughter, and friend passed Wednesday, August 6, 2014, at her home in Jackson, Missouri. Annette was born December 14, 1957 in Cape Girardeau, Missouri to William and Wintress Carney Daugherty and married Brad G. Farrar on October 12, 2005, in St. Louis, Missouri. A member of the Cape County Cowboy Church, Annette was best known for the love and kindness she brought to her community. Annette was the type of person who would call a neighbor or an old friend she hadn't seen in years just to see how they were. She lived in a modern time, but her love was old fashioned, genuine, and unconditional. Annette's heart was made of gold and her love shone brightly on those fortunate enough to know her. Though her father, William, predeceased her, Annette is lovingly survived by her husband Brad, her daughter, Alaina Kristen Reddick, her mother, Wintress Daugherty, and her step-children Ashley and Jason Farrar. Visitation will be held on Monday, August 11, 2014, from 11:00 a.m. to 12:45 p.m. at Ford & Sons Mt. Auburn Chapel. It will be followed by a graveside service at 1:00 p.m. at Cape County Memorial Park Cemetery officiated by the Reverend Jim Matthews. Should you wish to make a contribution in Annette's name, the family requests such donations be made to a charity of your choice. In lieu of a financial contribution, Annette's memory may be kept alive by acts of kindness towards others, especially in times of need.

“ I am very sorry for your loss of Annette. I cherished the time we lived beside each other. She was a dear friend and we shared our hearts desires. I pray she is in peace and knew she was loved by so many. She touched many lifes. Aliana, that Sunday night you and your mom came to my door was such a pleasant surpise to know you both would become our neighbors. May God bless and keep you and your grandmother in this time.

“ Annette brought joy into everyones life she met. There wasn't a time that I was in a store, getting gas, etc that she didn't make a point to say hello and ask how everyone was doing. She will be missed and my heart bleeds for your family.

“ Dear Annette, I remember our long conversations during our slow times working at Great Clips all those years ago. Do you remember? We talked about lots of things, giggled at the General Manager for her "keen fashion sense", discovered that you and my Mom went to the same high school, shared our love for crafting, but one of the things that stands out now was our talks about life. We talked about how this job wasn't going to make us rich or famous, but it was job. We had to pull up our big girl drawers and go on. I remember that we also shared the idea of not making the process of funerals long. We kind of agreed that two days of wake and service was two days too long. You said that you wanted people to remember you while you were here. Say what you wanted to say while we're living, not later. I agreed. So it was no surprise while reading your thoughtfully written obituary through tear filled eyes, that the wake and service were done this way. I smiled and swallowed the lump in my throat and thought to myself, "That's so like Annette." I still have the beautiful wall hanging and poem you made when I had Leah almost 13 years ago. I'll carry it with me always as I will your friendship. You have inspired many people to do good. So those times you wondered if you'd ever make a difference in someone's life, you at least made a difference in mine. Til we meet again friend. With Love, Nik

“ Annette, or friendship was full with funny stories , I know I made u laugh so hard. I'm so glad to add laughter in joy. In love into Ur life. Years we shared so many great memories. We had a million stories. Good times doing hair together . U always looked up to me for my strength in determining spirit & I've let you down . Cs my heart is so saddened. I'm not sure how long ur if I can find my fire inside. My heart is shattered my weakness. Miles to go before I rest . My eyes flow in less. Ib can't believe this is real. If only I could change these ending my dear .but I have to say goodbye . God please help us through the releasing her to ur loving arms. I'll never forget u Annette . Love until we meet up again. SherrNolan. Bye my friend. Rest in peace.
