“ I am so sorry for your loss. I first became acquainted with Art through the Clubhouse setting at Community Counseling Center. I later knew him through visits at the Heartland Care and Rehab here in Cape. I know that things were not always easy for Art, but he sure did have a nice smile, and was always concerned about other's feelings, sometimes questioning whether he had hurt other's feelings.

I remember one year when he was picked to be the Valentine's Day King to represent the Cape Girardeau Clubhouse, at the Valentine's Party. He was very happy, and especially that a friend of his was the Queen candidate. I hope that Art no longer feels any pain and that he has the peace of Christ to comfort him. I also hope that Dan will be able to make an adjustment to life without Art.
