“ Norma, Gerry and I were just talking about you and Audrey and I have to share a memory with you. I hope you can get a smile for it! Do you remember when you and Audrey lived with Mother and Dad? I must have been a very little girl because I do not remember it, but Gerry sure does. She started laughing and telling me how you and Audrey would fry potatoes and onions upstairs and the smell would go through the entire house. I guess the onion smell was so strong downstairs that it brought tears to their eyes. It would be so bad they would have to open all the doors and windows so they could breath!! I don't know how you all managed with just the one bathroom downstairs, either. Gerry said those were the days!!

“ To Audrey's Family: My Mother and I would like to express our sincere Sympathy on your loss. My Mother (Olivia) and Dad (Albert) were friends to Audrey and Dennis and spent many happy times with them, as did my brother and I when we were children. She was a lovely lady and will be missed by all.

“ Dear Norma and Families: Audrey was my mother's best friend! Ruth and Audrey played many hands of cards with Ben and Dennis. I always knew those men cheated and so did Audrey and mother!! They all so enjoyed each others company and friendship. A couple of yearas ago, my sister Gerry and I surprised Audrey by remembering her birthday. It is a memory we have both treasured and will continue to treasure. Audrey was always so gracious and patient. May the memories you cherish lift you up during this loss. Our prayers and thoughts are with you all.
