

Aulcey "Pee Wee" Huffman

January 14, 2009

Aulcey "Pee Wee" Huffman, 79, of Cape Girardeau, died Wednesday, January 14, 2009 at The Lutheran Home. He was born September 17, 1929, in Walters, La., the son of Charlie Carter and Tullie Violet Ganey Huffman. He and Genice K. Silman were married on July 30, 1966 in Cape Girardeau, Mo. She died August 16, 2007. Huffman served in the Army during World War II. Huffman was a longtime Cape County resident. He was a member of First Free Will Baptist Church. He was most recently a truck driver for Midway Dairy Farms in Jackson and previously had been with Nip Kelley Trucking for many years. Survivors include his stepmother, Janie Huffman of Louisiana.; four daughters, Jennifer Violet Tapley and husband, Justin of Thebes, Ill., Anita Cowan, Debbie Wagley, and Connie Sue Thorpe; four sons, Curtis, Billy, Frankie, and Eddie Joe Huffman; brother, William Lynn Huffman and wife, Mildred of Jena, La.; half brother, Donnie Ray Huffman of Louisiana; nephew, Lynn Huffman of Louisiana; grandchildren, Zachary Wayne Brim, Carmen Justine Danielle Tapley, Allen Carey Froust, Shanna Froust, Curtis Huffman, Jr., Angela Stanley, and a host of other grandchildren and great-grandchildren. He was preceded in death by his parents Charlie Carter and Tullie Violet Ganey Huffman; wife, Genice K. Silman Huffman; and daughter, Patti Huffman who died October 10, 2007. Friends may call at Ford & Sons Mt. Auburn Funeral Home on Saturday, January 17, 2009 from 11:00 AM to 1:00 PM. Funeral service will be at the funeral home on Saturday, January 17, 2009 at 1:00 PM with the Rev. Donny Ford officiating. Burial will be at Stanfield Cemetery, in Clarkton, Mo. Memorials may be made to Safe Harbor Animal Sanctuary.