“ I never met Aurilla. I heard about her from my same-aged daughter who had met and played music with Aurilla during a quarter study in NYC. I just ran across some screen shots I took from her Instagram writings. I was moved again rereading them. What a bright light put out too soon. Sending condolences from Washington state.

“ Blessed are those who mourn for they will be comforted.
Matt 5:4

To the Lawrence Family,

We the Bennett family are sending all of our love and thoughts at this time especially today. We wish we could be there to remember and celebrate Aurilla wonderful life with lots of love and hugs. We met and knew Aurilla for her honesty, kindness and most of all her generosity. Aurilla may not be here with us but she left behind a beautiful precious angel "Aalana who will always and forever be a part of our life.

May God continue to strengthen and comfort the family through this difficult time.

“ Aurilla, my dear, you are and will always be a shining star. You helped me in ways you will never know. Our friendship was a bumpy road, but that is all the more reason that I cherish our memories. <3 you are missed and I hope you know how much you mean to everyone you have met, befriended, or spoke to.

Keep an eye on everyone, give us guidance, and make sure to send a few laughs our way.
