“ I am his daughter and only child. My dad and I had a great relationship as I was very young and then had a huge fallen out for many years after and I am grateful for being able to reconcile our difference a couple of months before his passing and I miss him terribly...I love you so much daddy and I will miss you greatly...may God rest your soul!!!

“ My condolences to the family. Barry grew up across the street from my grandparents and we grew up together. His parents, Frank and "Katy" took care of my grandparents by looking in on them and just being good friends and neighbors. I remember Barry really being into cars and the Olds 442 his dad bought. I lost touch with him in the mid-60's, but I'm sad to hear of his passing.
