

Bernard Williams

April 4, 1963 - November 13, 2021

Bernard "BW" Williams, 58, died Saturday, November 13, 2021 at York Hospital, in York, Pa. He was born April 4, 1963 in Holland, Mo. to the late Early and Louvenia Williams.

He was a loving father, son, brother, and trucker. He is survived by two daughters Tiffany Williams of San Antonio, Tx., Latoya Mills of Las Vegas, Nv., and four sons Malcolm Williams of San Antonio, Tx., Chris Culp, Branson Potter, and Emmanuel Potter, all of Cheyenne Wy.

He is also survived by four sisters, Jane E. Walls of Owensburg, Ky., Dorothy Williams of St. Louis, Mo., Arlena Foote of Cape Girardeau, Mo. and Joyce Williams of Sikeston, Mo., and one brother, Earl Williams of St. Louis, Mo.

Remembering him also are several grandchildren and close friends.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by a son, Bernard Jr., two sisters, Marilyn Wilson, Henrietta Williams Johnson, and a brother, Marvin Williams.

Wyoming, Missouri, and the trucking world lost a smile, a laugh, and a "Hey how you doin, the name's BW." This week the world is a little less bright because he was called home to his resting place.

Services are scheduled for Saturday, November 20, 2021 at Ford and Sons Funeral Home, 1001 N. Mt Auburn Rd, Cape Girardeau, Mo. Visitation will begin at 11 am until time of services at 1 pm.

Burial will take place immediately after service at the Cape County Memorial Park Cemetery.

Remember...."Don't count the days, make the days count." Muhammad Ali

Ford and Sons Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

“ Bernard and I met at Dudley Park in Sikeston while playing some hoops back in the day. We had some good times back then. I lost track of him several years ago and now learn that he has passed on. I wish we could have caught up and did a little catch up. My condolences go out to his family and friends. He was a cool dude and we had some fun back then.
