“ Betty was such a great blessing to so many of us! Her faith in Christ is strong, and thanks to Him, we can look forward to seeing her later. Some of us are not able to attend the funeral service in person, but I will pray for God to comfort the family and help you to feel His love. I love you all.

“ Betty did indeed love to play cards and marbles. I remember visiting with Aunt Edna and Uncle Martin and we would sit around the kitchen table playing rummy or marbles for hours. Visiting, playing, and snacking on delicious homemade snacks. This was awesome fun. Betty was such a good person. She will be greatly missed.
