“ *The Payne family was a big part of my childhood. Our families spent lots of time together. Betty was a skilled musician. I remember the music she played at church and in her home. She was also a talented seamstress. My mother, Alma, asked her to sew some dresses for me and two sister. One Sunday evening after church we found the beautiful dresses arranged on the couch along with matching Barbie clothes. What a treat that was. I suspect that Mother payed her with farm fresh milk and eggs. Rest in peace Betty and eternal praise of our God.
