“ Bill and his family have always been our family. From the Rockton church of the Nazarene until we went to Olivet. Remembering the times from our Christmas programs as children, to his singing in a gospel quartet and him singing at my wedding. He was another brother. We know he's no longer in pain or connected to machines. He'll celebrate this Thanksgiving with our Heavenly Father who gave us his only son. Who taught us to Lord and to give thanks. God's blessings to JeanAnn, their children and grandchildren. Janet, Jim, Mary and their families and Danny's family. Rest In Peace Bill.
