“ Uncle Bob I will miss you very much and will forever hold you in my heart. I have many memories that will never fade, from my first pony, to parties and everything in between. None of us will live forever, but the memories we make during our stay here will, so live everyday as if there were no tomorrow and love the people around you the same way! All of you are very special to me and always have been. Always remember that I love you. Bene

“ Sleep,. Now blessings light on him that first invented this same sleep! It covers a man all over, thoughts and all, like a clock: tis meat for the hungry, drink for the thirsty, heat for the cold and cold for the hot. tis the current coin that purchases all the pleasures of the world cheap; and the balance that sets the king and the shepherd, the fool and the wise man even.
