“ So sorry to hear about this. I only knew Brian through our work together, but he was always such a class act and a gentleman. I always looked forward to working with him. My family will have your family in our prayers.

God Bless.

“Brian was the bravest person I know. Throughout his life he faced many trials with bravery and humility. We will miss him but I know for sure that heaven is rejoicing and he's anxious to continue working, with God, from "the other side." Love and prayers for Brian's wonderful family. Madonna & Dave
