

Brittany Paige Bomar

January 13, 1990 - May 8, 2018

Brittany Paige Bomar, age 28 of Cape Girardeau, Mo, departed this world on May 8th, 2018. Paige had a voracious appetite for life the moment she arrived in this world. As her loved one's can attest, she wasn't afraid to go out in the world and was passionate about everything she did. She and her fiancé, Ethan Myer, would often travel to various festivals and destinations, a camera always in hand, sharing their experiences with others. She had a deep love for life and was always striving to help make this Earth a better place, whether it was sharing veganism or protesting for animal rights, Paige was a passionate activist. Her love for animals grew as she became the mother of her four fur-babies, Dori, Athena, Spock, and Titus. This passion guided her to graduate from Southeast Missouri University with two bachelor's degrees in Social Work and Social Sciences. She was a paraprofessional at Jackson School District, where she loved working with her students and peers. Paige's warm smile and joyful laugh helped brighten the lives of those around her and she will be sorely missed.
