“ I'll never forget the day I went root hunting with Cal and Kevin. They ended up getting us turned around in the woods and we was lost for hours! They had to chase me down and calm me down! I panicked and ran cause I got stung. Ended up walking so many miles trying to find our way back! Ended up several miles away from where we started by the time we found an exit! What I wouldn't give to be lost looking for roots with em today!
