“ My sweetest memories of Mom Newell are of course at church first of all ! She was the most wonderful and godly woman. Even getting into us kids (adults) at church during service if you laughed at something funny Dad Newell would say during service ❤️. Also other great memories when we would be camping together! We had so much fun. One time we Mom Newell, Connie and myself decided to walk a trail that led up to the dam while camping at Wappapella. Well we decided to take a short cut down the side of the gravel wall of the dam to get to camp faster. Mom Newell was all in, but low and behold to mine and Connie's dismay , here comes Dad Newell to fetch his shouting woman and scold Connie and I good. I even thought he was gonna take his belt off and stripe our legs good! I'm sure he wanted to. We have big laughs about it now only because we all survived it. Oh how I live this beautiful second family of mine. Love you Mom Newell and will see you soon !!
