“ So sorry for your loss. I worked with Carol at Schnucks for many years. She was a hard worker and we shared many laughs. Prayers for all the family.

“ To the Carol Lee Mouser family: We are indeed sorry for your loss; we've only known Carol since the autumn of 2018, when we met her through the Maco Rentals Of Spring Street & the West Court Manor, Cape Girardeau, MO. It was a business relationship, she as filling the position as the Leasing Agent, we the tenants. We knew she was beginning to be tired and not as exuberant as when first meeting her but didn't learn of her being ill until the late autumn of 2021. We extend to you each & every one our most heartfelt condolences and sympathy. You will be in our hearts, thoughts and prayers.

Most sincerely, Larry & Harryette Miller Burnette

Travis I don't like the memory of you saying a thing about your memory of Carol. You should not say a thing but all good things she did for you.
