“ I had the great pleasure of working with Carolyn for many years in Academic Hall. She was always the source of energy, humor, quick wit and passion. When visiting with her after retirement and during her illness she was still all those things. Although there is an emptiness here with her loss as her family and friends, knowing she is better and strengthened once again brings peace, comfort and a smile to our faces and hearts. Praying for you to be comforted time and time again with peace and fond memories. She just beat us getting to the finish line. God bless.

DR MEADORS AND I WERE SADDENED TO HEAR OF HER PASSING. HOWEVER, WE KNOW SHE HAS GONE TO A PEACEFUL AND HAPPY AFTERLIFE. THINKING OF YOU AT THIS TIME...DEB*

“ From the service department at Cape Girardeau Honda we express our deepest sympathy to the friends and family of Carolyn. We were so blessed to have her as a customer and there is not one time she stopped by that we weren't all laughing by the time she left. She was such an inspiration during her battle and still is. God bless

“ I worked with Carolyn at SEMO back in the 80's. She touched my life by being such an inspiration to me with her strength and positive outlook. She always had me laughing. I haven't seen Carolyn for many years, but I have never forgotten her- she always had a special place carved out in my heart. It was such a joy - and a priviledge - to have known her.

“ Please accept my deepest sympathy for I too know the pain of losing someone as special as a mom. May your family find comfort as I have in knowing that our loving heavenly Father promises us that very soon he will 'wipe out every tear from our eyes, and death will be no more.' (Revelation 21:4) What a wonderful day that will be!

“ To Carolyn's family I send to you my deepest heart felt sympathy. I didn't know that God was giving me a present until he gave me the gift of having Carolyn as my friend. She had an unforgettable smile along with a kind heart which I will always remember. To her children I say "Weeping may endure the night but joy cometh in the morning."

“ To Carolyn's Family Working at Southeast Missouri State University, I had the opportunity to interact with Carolyn countless times over the last decade or more. She and I also had another thing in common - cancer. As a 25 year survivor, Carolyn was a mentor to me. I was able to carry on, in no small part, with her encouragement. For the last several years she also shared her cancer battle with the nursing students. Carolyn brought a sparkle wherever she went. It was like pixie dust. We all miss this.

“ Dear Kevin and Angel, Praying for you all now. I am sure you are comforted knowing that your sweet mom is at peace now. So many fun memories of Carolyn but probably my favorite were watching her face light up as she told stories of traveling the globe and sightseeing. I am so glad I got to visit with her some last fall and get a chance to reconnect after many years apart. I loved getting to see her in her beloved home and with all her plants/flowers around that she was so obviously talented at tending! I regret not working harder to go see her again this Spring as I had intended to do. I know she would be her normal sweet self and forgive me. Pray you too can cherish your many wonderful memories and find comfort in that as well! Thank you God for sharing this little dynamo with us for a little while and so glad she is now completely healed and whole and in no more pain! Yours and His, Alison Staggs

“ Every time I hear the crack of the bat during a Cardinal baseball game, I'll remember the great times Carolyn and I shared at the old stadium! When I put cinnamon rolls, or macaroons, in the oven I shall always think of her, too. Kevin and Angel, she was so very proud of you! You have taken such good care of your mother, who will remain my dear and feisty friend. My life has been so blessed by Carolyn! With love and prayers, Cheryl

“ Kevin & Angel - you don't know me but I knew your mom, as I worked down the hall from her for a few years. She was a wonderful person, and will be dearly missed by those of us that came to love her. I love that her obituary says that she was full of sass and spice - that was definitely Carolyn. And she had a big heart - I lost my mother almost a year and a half ago, but during her battle, Carolyn always asked about her. So I know the heartbreak you're dealing with. I'm praying for peace and comfort for you and your families. Carolyn - you fought a long, hard battle...but you won, you're Home now. I'll miss you more than you know. The halls of Academic Hall will never be the same without you. Love, Jen
