

Catherine Pulliam

September 6, 2014

Catherine Pulliam, 88, of Cape Girardeau, Missouri died Saturday, September 6, 2014 at Heartland Care and Rehab in Cape Girardeau, Missouri, where she had been a resident for a short time. She was born September 19, 1925 in Scott City, Missouri to Walter and Flora Fox Reed. She and J.C. Pulliam were married January 15, 1947 in Arkansas. Catherine worked at the Sunny Hill Poultry Co. Inc. in Cape Girardeau early in her life. After that, she was a homemaker, which she loved. She liked cooking, canning, and gardening as well as caring for and loving her animals. Catherine was the oldest girl in the family and was considered the matriarch; she always looked after her sisters, nieces and nephews. Survivors include sisters, Fannie (John) Farrow of Jackson, Missouri and Jewel (James) Mitchell of Mounds, Illinois; and a number of nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by her parents; husband; son, Billy Pulliam; five brothers; and three sisters. Friends may call 11:00 AM to 1:00 PM on Tuesday, September 9, 2014 at Ford & Sons Mt. Auburn Chapel in Cape Girardeau. Funeral service will be at 1:00 PM Tuesday, September 9, 2014 at Ford & Sons Mt. Auburn Chapel in Cape Girardeau with the Rev. Donny Ford officiating. Burial will be at Cape County Memorial Park in Cape Girardeau. Memorial contributions may be given to St. Francis Hospice.

“ Jay and Catherine lived on our farm when I was growing up and Jay worked on the farm. Catherine was always so nice and considerate. Later my wife Nanci got to know her and we have many warm memories of Catherine. We want to send our best wishes and sympathy to all who loved her.
