“ Chad it was so good to be able to come to see you and say thank you and good bye. I hope you enjoyed the song I asked your mom to play. I think Clint was really moved by that. I made it back home all safe and sound. It was a long trip but worth every second my friend. I'll see you again soon. Make those sticks last until I get there!

“ I was saddened to read the news of Chad's death. Losing a child is one of the saddest life challenges and words that can give you true comfort are difficult to find. I wish I could find words to help ease your pain. Chad was a fine young man and I am glad to have had the opportunity to know him. If there is anything I can do during this time of loss, please let me know. You have my sincere condolences and sympathy.

“ Even though we only met and Hung out with Chad twice, he made such a lasting impression that we always considered him our friend for life. May his Sevendust playlist always be stuck on repeat. We love you buddy, and God bless your family during this time if grief.

“ My heart goes out to you Jim and Rhonda. It has been a hard time with mom and I cannot imagine doing this with a child. He is Gods hands now and in no pain, I hope that alone gives comfort. Keep believing,keep your faith and it will get you through this hartbreaking time. I truly believe that he is greeted by Jesus and those who have went on ahead of him. Grandpa Howard will be standing there with a smile on his face and great Grandma Pearl by his side. What a comfort. God bless you and all Chads family
