

Charles "Andy" Juden

August 28, 2014

Charles Andrew "Andy" Juden, Jr., 80 of Cape Girardeau, Missouri passed away at the Life Care Center in Cape Girardeau Thursday, August 28, 2014. He was born on January 26, 1934 in Cape Girardeau to Charles Andrew Juden, Sr. and Cleo Magness Juden. He attended St. Vincent's grade school and Central High School. After graduation from Central he attended the University of Missouri Columbia. He and Jeanette Hosea were married on December 25, 1954 at Christ Episcopal Church in Cape Girardeau. He joined his father in the family's farm and real estate management business. He was active in the Lion's Club, Cape Girardeau Country Club and Elk's Club. He enjoyed hunting and was a member of Duck's Unlimited for 25 years. He was also a member of The Navy League. He was Chairman of the Board of the Main Street Levee District which kept downtown Cape dry when the river was at flood stage. He retired from the District when the City assumed the task of running the pumping station. Loving survivors include his wife, Jeanette; two sons, Charles Andrew "Drew" Juden III of Sikeston, Missouri and David Guild Juden of Cape Girardeau, Missouri; and two sisters, Jill Pigott of Stone Mountain, Georgia and Julia Basham of Thornton, Colorado. He is also survived by six grandchildren and two great grandchildren. He will also be sadly missed by his dog, Fritz. He was preceded in death by his parents, an infant sister and a daughter, Rebecca aged 2. Visitation will be from 4-7 P.M. Friday, August 29, 2014 at Ford & Sons Mt. Auburn Chapel. There will be a private family service and interment at Cape County Memorial Park Cemetery

Saturday, August 30, 2014. Memorial contributions to Crown Hospice or the charity of your choice.
