“ Randy (and Family), It is never easy in times of death. But take joy in the life your Father had: a long life that left a great legacy behind in his sons and their families. I am thankful to all who serve(d) our country, and thankful of your Father's service protecting our freedoms. My prayers are with your Father in his life everlasting, and with you and yours during this trying time. There are many others here at Boeing that have the same thoughts. God Bless!

“ Scott/Randy-so sorry to hear of your loss. I have a lot of neat memories of your Dad from the stories he shared with us when we were kids living at Bloomfield and Minnesota. Your Dad's service to his country should make you two proud.
