“ Working with Gina at Community Counseling Center, we got used to seeing her father drop in each week to check on his baby girl. Then, all of a sudden, this other guy started showing up. I have never seen anyone beam before! Basil just absolutely beamed as he looked at Gina, giggling behind her desk. Their marriage came as no surprise to us. I know that you, Gina, could not have been more cherished than by her sweet Basil. I know you are thankful for this gift God gave you. Prayers for you.

“ I've known Basil's wife Gina ever since she was a young child where I was her Sunday school teacher at Southside Baptist church. I didn't meet Basil until I started going to Oak Ridge Cowboy Church, but once I met him I knew he and Gina were a perfect match, because they are two of the nicest people I've ever had the pleasure of knowing. He would always give me a hug when I got to church and say hello beautiful. Always had a smile and never complained. He will surely be missed by all. My Deepest Condolences to Gina and the rest of the family.

Gina,
I am so sorry. Wish I could be there for you!! Please know you are in my deepest thoughts & prayers. God bless! He is dancing with your dad & Gail, singing "What a Happy Day" That sound always calms my heart when I am missing my sis. Love you girl!!!

Gina, I've known you since we were little girls going to Southside Baptist Church. Our paths would cross from time to time and then again at Hope Lodge. There we lifted each other up and supported each other as well as prayed for your husband and for mine. I got to know Basil a little bit while there. I could tell you two were meant for each other. Cherish the time you two had with other and know he is in a much better place without any pain and suffering. Prayers for you, my friend, and all of your family.
