“ I was one of Charlie's caregivers. We use to watch the birds and squirrels outside the big kitchen window. We would also listen to all sorts of music and do exercises while watching the birds and squirrels. Hugs and prayers to the family. Mary you were nice to get to know and work with.

“ My deepest condolences to Mary on the loss of her husband Charles and to my dear friend Vickie and her sister Kathy on the loss of their father. I didn't know Charles in his later years but I was privileged to know him many years ago. I remember him as a kind, family oriented man who had a warm ready smile. I always felt warmly welcomed by Mary and Charles when I visited their home in Scot City.

“ I was privileged to worked as a caregiver for Charles for 16 months. Within my 25 years of providing care for seniors; Charlie, Charlie as I called him was the most humble human being I've ever met. His personality reminded me of my father who lives in Africa. In my mind Charlie was my father.

I would take my dog ( peaches) to work every day Charlie, Charlie looked forward to having peaches (dog) followed him around the house while they both took a nap with Peaches on his lap.

Amazingly, with my Liberian accent Charlie understood my sentences as we held conversations.

when I visited him after my Job ended he greeted me with the biggest smile. Charlie, Charlie I believe, you have enter the gates of heaven. Peaches the “white pup” will missed you. Rest in internal peace.

To Mary, Vickie and Kathy thanks for sharing Charlie with me.

Fondly, Grace Johnson
