“Missing my son, tonight. I remember when just you and I drove to the Grand Canyon and Monument Valley . . . just you and me. What a trip! Helicopter ride over the Canyon, miles of walking, great food, rooming together and laughing so much. What I would give to be able to go back and do it all over again. Maybe we'll do it again, Chuck, when I see you again someday. Until then . . . I'll just keep missing my “Chucky Boy!”

“We wish we could be beside you today; however, you have many caring family and friends at your side with love and support. Jim and I are with you in thoughts and spirit. And we will be here in Round Rock when you return home. The Lord is present to walk with you through this very difficult time. Cast All your anxiety on Him. The Lord has promised: a New Heaven and a New earth where there will be no more death, or mourning, crying or pain, for the old order of things has passed away: Revelations 21:

“ *Bob and Sue-
As we have shared in the past, I have never witnessed a greater example of commitment and unconditional love for a child. Through good times and times of struggle you were always there for Chuck. He had a good heart and tremendous strength just like the two of you. I can't imagine how difficult this must be. However, I hope that the love and support of friends and family will comfort you. We are always here for you dear friends. May God bless you all and bring you peace.*

*We love you,
