“ On behalf of the Taylor family I would like to extend our sincere condolences to the Williams family. Little Honey and I grew up together and worked many jobs together during our teenage years. He was a hard worker and kind soul. I was planning on attending the funeral but my plane got delayed in Chicago today 10/14 and now they tell me the earliest I would get into Cape would be late this evening so I'm returning to Madison, WI. But please know your family is in my thoughts and prayers. Little Honey was loved by family and friends and his memory will always be in our hearts. God bless you all.
