“ Char is my cousin and full of humor and was full of twinkle and mischief. Us younger cousins enjoyed her coming to visit in St James and how she found a way to soften our hearts and bring us laughter at the situation and ourselves. We live at a distance and it has been three years since I was able to see Char and I miss her. My prayers for Barry and Robert and all the family! Love Cheryl

“ To the Malahy family: Mrs. Malahy was my Latin teacher for 4 years at Central High School in the late sixties, early seventies. I have many fond memories of Latin Club, banquets and togas, meetings in your home. She was an awesome, dedicated teacher and she touched many students' lives. May she rest in peace.
