

Chelsea Chanell Roberts

July 25, 1994 - October 26, 2017

Chelsea Chanell Roberts, 23 of Jackson, passed away Thursday, October 26, 2017 at Barnes Jewish Hospital due to injuries sustained in a car accident.

She was born July 25, 1994 in Cape Girardeau to Glenn Roberts and Beth (Davis) Roberts.

Chelsea attended Jackson High School most of her high school years and graduated from Cape Central. She worked as a server at Applebee's in Cape and most recently worked at Saint Francis Medical Center in housekeeping.

Chelsea Chanell is the definition of a strong, loving, independent, hard-working single mom. Nothing in life brought her more joy than the laughter of her three baby girls, Juliet, Saleigh and Kaiyah.

As her last selfless act, Chelsea was an organ and tissue donor. Her donation will help save hundreds of others. She leaves one powerful legacy and that legacy will forever live on.

Loving survivors include her mother and father of Jackson; her three daughters; nine siblings, Dorian, Andre, Jessica (Jordan) Keele, Trevor, Lindsey, Jaylee, Kobe and Leelan; God parents, Dennis and Joy Vinson of Cape Girardeau; God sister, Sierra Beasley of Cape Girardeau; numerous aunts, uncles, cousins, nieces, nephews and friends.

Celebration of life service will be Thursday, November 2, 2017 at noon at Christ Church of the Heartland with Apostle Adrian Taylor, Jr. officiating.

Visitation will be one hour prior to the service.

“ well it 3 years well 3 years and 10 days since you passed and it still hasn't gotten any easier. i just keep thinking when are you gonna come back or when will this all be over and you will be here. i keep hoping it sum type of prank or you needed to get rid of your identity bc you were in trouble. i still have hope that your alive somewhere even tho i know your not. and i guess i haven't really come to terms with it and faced the reality that your not coming back but i don't wanna do that. i love you so much sis and i miss you so very much.
