“ To the Swan and Wade Family, I send my heartfelt sympathy. There are no words to express the sorrow I feel for you all in my heart. Only God can lessen the pain with time. "There is no sorrow that Heaven cannot heal." Lean with all your strength on God and He will hold you up and give you comfort. Due to a death in my husband's family I will be in Mississippi for a funeral Saturday. I love you all and will continue to hold you up in prayer. God Bless and keep you all.

“ To the family of Chermon Swan, I'm very sorry about the death of your loved one. I wanted to share the scriptural hope that gave me so much comfort and I hoped it would you also. The Bible shows that God did not intend for humans to die. (Romans 5:12). It also calls death an enemy. (1 Corinthians 15:26). God has made arrangements to remove death forever. (Isaiah 25:8). God has also set a time when he will resurrect our loved ones who have already died. (John 5:28,29). Please go to jw.org to find satisfying answers using your own Bible. Sincerely, Susan Novak
