“ I want to offer special condolences and sympathy to my friend and colleague, Darlene. I remember her boys visiting our office years ago and how bright and friendly Chris always was. He was a genuinely likable boy. May God help Darlene and the family through this pain. My prayers are with her.

“ I taught Chris English for two years at Cape Central High School. We would often talk about books when he stopped by my room. My heart broke when I read this in the paper. Chris will live on in our hearts and memories forever. He will not be forgotten. Your family is in my prayers.
