“ I remember Clara Mae most clearly at the Pentecost Church in McClure and at my Grandma's house.
My sister Allie Mae Hill, Clara Mae, and I were all teenagers and close cousins. The river was up, as usual, threatening to break the levee. Clara, living across the street from My Grandpa and Grandma was over to their house a lot.

I can still hear Clara Mae sing my favorite Pentecostal song:

"As I travel through this pilgrim land there is a friend who walks with me."

"As I kneel in prayer I know that you are there, Blessed Jesus, Hold my hand."

No singer could make me "know that he was there or feel his hand" like she could.

“ Sorry to read of your moms passing. As kids we shared some fun times at Harts company picnics and school activities. She was such a wonderful mom to so many. Wish there was a visitation as I'd love to see all of you. One of my best memories I have of her is that I ate my first taco around your kitchen table with all of you. My mom never made anything Mexican and my first taste of that delicious taco planted a memory I will always remember! Know I will be praying for God to comfort your hearts during this time.

Was saddened to hear of Clara's passing but so grateful for our friendship established many years ago when we were young and attended the same church there in McClure. We always had a solid relationship. . . . Would not see or talk for years and then one of us would call the other, and it was as tho we had talked just yesterday. I love her and the memories I have of her were full of fun and laughter; I honestly don't ever remember us ever having a conflict! She loved her Almos with a passion and you, her children & grandchildren, as much. . . . But then, you kids know this! What you don't know tho, is how your Mom's only brother, Everd treated my daughter, as a child growing up. . He treated her as a daughter and, today she still recalls her loving "Uncle Tom," and how he always loved and kidded her. . . . Clara had that personality as well. Just know, that each of you are in my thoughts & prayers during this sad time. And remember, God loves each one of you, and is as close as a prayer. . . . ❤️
