“ To Linda, Donna, and Terri: My family lived next to yours on College Street. My brother Owen and I played with you girls as children. I'm sorry to hear about your dad. Your mom and dad were always nice to my brother and I. My father has also passed but my mother is still alive. Your old schoolmates, Debra Scherer Baughn and Owen Scherer

Oh my, thanks so much for this memory. I loved growing up on College street. I believe your dad might be buried close to my husband, down at Bloomfield Veterans Cemetery. I noticed his headstone, while visiting there. Terri Hency Noland

I remember you and Owen. Little green apples, playing with farm people, rolling down the hill. Thank you for the post!

“ Such a sweet man. I would make sure when I baked something to bring a little bit to him at the YMCA. We worked along side each other for almost 3 years there. He will be missed dearly. His smile and laughter up lifted everyone's mood. Rest in peace my friend.

“ I never thought when I join the Y team that my life would be so enriched. I had the honor to work with the morning team. They welcomed me and helped me learn the ropes and strange crew that files in every morning to workout and share some fellowship before going on with their day.

JR was the one that orchestrated the whole beautiful mess. Day after day, with insights, stories and his sense of humor. He was our rock, pastor and he became my good friend. Farewell my friend!
