“ Cory,

Hey bud. Its sad to hear about what happened to you brother. I have alot of good memories with you from our days at St. Paul. I remember when we would open up our glue bottles and stomp on them to see how far we could shoot them down the hallway. When we would see who could climb up the gym wall onto the balcony the fastest. We used to have those wiffle ball homerun derby's in your yard. It was always fun goin over to your house as kids. I know we lost touch after high school but I wish we didn't. Keep me a cold one waitin up there buddy and we will catch up when I get there. We will be paraying for your family.

“ Cory, nobody knows what is fully happening inside a person, by circumstance, environment, people around you and vice's. You were such a smart young man with the world at your fingertips and we loved you very much. You will always be in our hearts and a part of my family. You helped raise my grandkids and taught them many things - you will never be forgotten. We will love you always.

P.S. If you see my dad up there - Please tell him hello.

“ Cory.... Haven't seen you in awhile but have often thought of you. I just had a brief conversation with you out of the blue Thursday... I wish I could have known. I pray and believe you have found peace. You were a good person Cory. I will always remember you. Give my son and Derell a hug in heaven for me. Much love my friend.

“ I know how much you hated this picture Cory, but this is how I will forever remember you, as that cute as a button little boy that I carried around and could never keep a straight face around. You always made us laugh.....i don't know why I remember you putting fries up your nose at Nonee's kitchen table, but that is one resonates in my memory often :) We all have our demons Cory and now you are free from yours. I love and miss you and will forever remember our time together when we were little.
