

Daniel Hager

May 2, 2014

Daniel Ray Hager, 46, of Cape Girardeau died Friday, May 2, 2014 at St. Francis Medical Center. He was born April 29, 1968 in Cape Girardeau to Oscar Merrill and Sandra Sherif Hager. He and Susan Fornkohl were married December 27, 1986 at Cape Girardeau, Mo. Daniel worked for Jerry Lipps Trucking. He also worked in construction through AFL-CIO Local 1104 and did work on the Bill Emerson Bridge. He earned a Black Belt in Karate and was a workaholic. Survivors include his mother, Sandra McDowell, son, Brandon Wesley Hager, daughter, Crystal Danielle Hager, and grandchild, Damaryah Gail Hager, all of Cape Girardeau. He was preceded in death by his father and brother, James Clinton Hager. A memorial service will be held at a later date.

Tribute Wall

CL

“ Danny had a very big heart in many ways. I'm sorry that I will not see him on this earth again, but in heaven, all pain is wiped away. We will all be made new and whole. I pray that Danny is enjoying his time without pain. I miss you, Danny. Sincerely, Carol McManaman lawson

Carol McManaman Lawson - December 05, 2014 at 12:00 AM

SR

“ So sorry for your loss. Prayers and comfort.

Sherry Abernathy Renois - July 05, 2014 at 12:00 AM

JS

“ Sorry for your loss. Danny was my 1st cousin. He was younger than my two oldest sons; so we didn't get to know each other very good. Pray God will come close to you children and grandma Sandy, too, and help you in the days ahead.

Judy McDowell Stone - July 05, 2014 at 12:00 AM