“ Dani,

Was my niece that smiled allot. She allot of challenges to get thru, but she worked hard, grew up and became a good person. Its always sad to hear someone young passing away, but Dani is now in place where she can find peace. Dani, I wish you well. April and I will keep in contact with your Mom, my sister Trish.

“ Hi Patti,

Sorry for your loss. It has been a long time since we have celebrated holidays together. Memories of Dani are memories of you. It was you and Dani who introduced me to Elvis Presley, when I stayed with you guys for a week in the summer after a week of swim camp in Michigan. I never really cared for his music before then. It was that memory that popped into my head when I heard the sad news. I remember sleep walking in your house and setting off the door alarm. I also remember when we visited you in Flossmour IL: me, my brother, Dani and Tiffany were there. Dani lit a candle at the kitchen table and we tried to have a seance to talk to spirits or ghosts.

Recently I finally had the courage to text her. She told me that the hardest part for her to change in life was "adjusting to life, learning how to be human how to deal with stress and emotions is the hardest part". She spoke of possibly getting married again. She always encouraged people to see the positive, even though deep inside she had a lot going on.

It is never easy to lose a family member especially so close to the holidays. I really do not remember Thanksgiving or Christmas the year my dad died. I hope that you have someone near who can support you and ask you what you need as you take the daily steps of grief.

Be safe!

Peace and Light,

Jacque (Jax) Hazelwood

“ She was very good at natural history and was great with kids on that subject. Where she impressed me was her sense of humor. My wife and I are surely going to miss her company!
