“Darrell was a sweet, funny guy when I knew him, but it's been quite a while since I saw his handsome face. We dated for a few years right after he got out of the Marines and I was a year behind him at Jordan High School In Long Beach. He was a charmer, a hardworker, and could eat more McDonald's than I thought his swimmers physique could possibly handle. My heartfelt, deepest condolences to his family. If I could feel this badly about his passing after so many years I can only imagine how much they will miss him. In a sad coincidence, I came across a few old photos of Darrell and I when looking for photos for my Mothers funeral, who passed away a few weeks before he did, and is in one of the family photos.
