“ Irvin and Peggy and the kids. I'm so sorry to hear about David. We were really good friends back in the 80s and 90s. He lived just right up the street from me in Jackson, MO. He would bring his lawnmower down and we would race lawnmowers down the street. So many memories riding in his car with the windows down to his favorite song "Dirty Laundry" by Don Henley. The best memory of all was every 4th of July at our house in Jackson, David would buy so many fireworks, light them all off, and everybody in the neighborhood thought we was the city park with all the fireworks we had. So many good memories with him & he will truly be missed.

With Love,
Rodney, Vickie, Breanna, and Landon Kinder
