“ It's been almost 2 years since you transitioned to be with our Heavenly Father. I now find comfort in the precious memories we shared, I miss our daily morning talks, late night talks and corny jokes..."BROWN, BROWN, BROWN, BROWN,...BROWN you know you hear me--- your favorite joke of all times. I often hear one of your favorite songs on the radio and I instantly say, "that's Nee-Cee's jam". I miss you so much. You will always have a place in my heart. Your friend FOREVER, Carol Hughes Primm (cat-tle)

“ Having worked with Deniese in past years, I was saddened to learn of her death. She called me "Mom" and I accepted her as a daughter. She was full of life and now may she rest in the abundant arms of OUR LORD and SAVIOR JESUS CHRIST..
