“ Last night as we looked up towards the sky, we watched the stars twinkle so brightly....and we thought, that perhaps they are not the stars, but rather, openings in heaven where the love of our lost ones pours through and shines down upon us to let us know they are happy...and with that thought said, we know that when the family or us, need to fill Tater's presence, we can look at those stars and know that he is smiling down at everyone with each twinkle, and silently saying..."I'm doing fine, I'm happy now, as I am with Jesus...and I know someday we each will be together again...I am thankful for each and everyone of you being in my life...I love you and will miss you as much as you do I."

We love you Tater, and will always keep your memories alive in our heart....

“ It's the little things, the small, everyday occurrences that you'll remember. The laughs, the stories, the smiles. And even though it seems like you can never recover from your loss, it is these very memories that will help push the pain away and bring back the smile. Tater will always have a special spot in our family memories always. We send our prayers and loving thoughts to the family.
